

CHURCH ARMY USA INTRODUCES NEW CERTIFICATE OF EVANGELISM

At its June 8 2018 banquet Church Army USA introduced a new Certificate of Evangelism that it has developed in collaboration with Trinity School of Ministry. The Certificate will train evangelists to help parishes reach outside their walls into the communities around them with the gospel of Jesus Christ. As Bishop James Hobby said in his keynote address, “We can no longer say that evangelism is painting your church doors red. Evangelism takes place outside the church doors, not inside them.”

The Certificate program restores the original mission of Church Army, which was to equip the church with evangelists who would reach people outside its walls who would ordinarily never come into the church. You can sign up for the Certificate Program here.

Bishop Hobby addresses banquet attendees.

Maggie tells her story

During the course of the evening the guests heard about Church Army evangelistic work taking place in Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Florida, and Maryland.

Maggie Dannenmueller, a recent convert to Christ, shared her struggle with heroin addiction and the help that she found through the Church Army evangelists at The Uncommon Grounds Café in Aliquippa, PA.

The Certificate program will be initiated in September 2018. Those interested in the program can enroll by completing an application and enrollment form on the Church Army USA website.

We pray that this program will be a significant aid to the church as it fulfills its mission of “going and making disciples of all nations”.
